Saturday, 2 August 1952

1. Met with IADs, at which time we drafted the CIA response to Gen. Partridge's request for an evaluation of intelligence on Bulgaria and Southern Rumania and an indication of the importance of supplementing such intelligence. Later delivered this evaluation to Gen. Partridge.

2. While talking with Gen. Partridge (and also on Friday when talking with Gen. Samford) I suggested the advisability of appointing an acting chairman for the Watch Committee, in the light of possible changes in G-2. Both agreed that this would be the best procedure.
